1. Is this your last contest for the season in this sport? Yes No

“Executive Board Policy – Ejection Policy – Ejected Player or Coach
D. Appeal Process: If the principal or the Athletic Director of the ejected coach/player and the commissioner of officials agree that the suspension should be set aside, the principal may appeal to the Executive Director within 48 hours of the ejection to set aside the next game suspension portion of the penalty. Unless the commissioner agrees that the suspension should be set aside, the appeal must be denied by the Executive Director.”
Excerpt OSAA Handbook, Executive Board Policy, “Ejection Policy – Ejected Player or Coach” for additional information.

2. Do you plan to appeal the suspension? Yes No

If yes, a representative of the school should contact the commissioner of the officials association covering the contest immediately to explain why an appeal has been filed.

3. The commissioner has been contacted and he/she agrees to support the appeal? Yes No

Per Board Policy, unless the commissioner agrees that the suspension should be set aside, the appeal must be denied by the OSAA.
